

Randy Thomason Selected as President of Central Florida Vacation Rentals Managers Association

Randy Thomason, CEO of Imagine Vacation Homes and active member of Central Florida Vacation Rentals Managers Association, will serve a 1-year term as president of the association.

Feb. 11, 2008 - PRLog -- Orlando, Fla.- The Central Florida Vacation Rental Managers Association (CFVRMA), formerly known as the Central Florida Property Managers Association (CFVRMA) was formed in 1997 to unite professionals in the vacation home industry. The association provides information and resources to its members allowing them to successfully grow their businesses. Currently, CFVRMA has over 150 members. Randy Thomason was elected as president to help guide the association and its members for 2008.

“Vacation homes are a growing trend for families to stay in when they come to the Orlando area. I am very proud to have the opportunity to lead one of the largest organizations of vacation property managers. This association strives to inform the public about our industry and guide its members. I'm proud to be working with a great group of individuals,” Thomason said.

CFVRMA serves as a liaison between the property management industry and property managers. The main goal of CFVRMA is to provide information to the public about vacation rental homes and the benefits of working with one of our associated property management companies.
