

Carnival Cruises From Port Canaveral to Bahamas (March 2008)

You can obtain unmatched discounts and savings (up to 50%) for you and your entire family and save virtually thousands of dollars on cruises with Norwegian, Royal Caribbean, Carnival and Princess, as well as at thousands of hotels and resorts.

Feb. 15, 2008 - PRLog -- The word “carnival” is defined in the dictionary as “any merrymaking, revelry, festival or program of sports or entertainment”. This word aptly describes the onboard experience you will have on “fun” ships of the Carnival Cruise Line and during on board excursions at ports along the way.

During the month of March, 08, no fewer than five 4-day cruises (Mar. 2, 9, 16, 23 and 30) and four 3-day cruises (Mar. 6, 13, 20 and 27) are planned from Port Canaveral, Florida, to the Bahamas. The 4-day cruises leave on Sundays at 4:00 p.m. and return on the following Fridays at 7:00 a.m. The 3-day cruises leave on Thursdays at 4:00 p.m. and return the following Mondays at 7:00 a.m.

During the month of March 08 three 7-day cruises (Mar. 1, 15 and 29) are planned from Port Canaveral, Florida, to the Eastern Caribbean and two 7-day cruises (Mar. 8 and 22) are planned from Port Canaveral, Florida to the Western Caribbean. These cruises leave on Saturdays at 4:00 p.m. and return the following Saturdays at 7:00 a.m.

During the month of March 08 four 5-day cruises (Mar. 3, 8, 22 and 31) and two 4-day cruises (Mar. 13 and 27) are planned from Jacksonville, Florida, to the Bahamas. The 5-day cruises leave on either Mondays or Saturdays at 4:00 p.m. (depending upon the cruise selected) and return the following Saturdays or Thursdays at 7:00 a.m. (depending upon the cruise selected).

During the month of March 08 four 3-day cruises (Mar. 7, 14, 21 and 28) are planned from Miami, Florida, to the Bahamas. These cruises leave on Fridays at 4:00 p.m. and return the following Tuesdays at 8:00 a.m.
