Here is a chance to share your experience with the world. Send us your short stories and we will get that published. The best short story of the month will win exciting prizes. There are always some stories, which we want to share. But we don't know how and where. Free-shortstories.com is a platform for every one who has some story or the other to share.

You can send your entries under our present categories of Children Stories, Ghost Stories, Short Love Stories or any other. If we have more than 2 stories under any particular section we will create a new category. So what are you waiting for? Pick your notepad and pen down a short story based on real time experience. The moment, the incident that you can never forget and wanted the world to know about it. This month's exciting gift can be yours.

Love stories section invites real life time, original story from men and women who are in love or have ever been in love. Pen down your experience and let the world know what you felt for her or him. Make your love story a memoir, a souvenir to be published and read today and forever.

Your haunted hostel room or scary nights spent in a P.G accommodation or any other Place, there are always some scary experiences in everybody's life. Ghost exists or not, it's a mystery. There are some questions unanswered.
