Storage Plus, Inc. is opening new locations on the tri-state area.

Aug. 29, 2008 - PRLog -- Storage Plus, Inc., a leading storage company, has recently announced the opening of a new facility on 165th Street and Liberty Avenue in Jamaica, NY, to keep up with the increasing demand of storage companies.

The new facility has over 1,000 storage spaces of various sizes, to fill this new 65,000 sq. ft. building and accommodating all the clients with this ideal location. The facility is open from Monday-Saturday 9 to 6 and Sunday from 9 to 4 pm with convenient loading docks in the rear of the building and the front entrance of the facility. The building is equipped with a freight elevator for convenience access to the storage spaces located on all floors. All three floors of the building have state-of-the-art security system with cameras all over the facility.

Storage Plus, Inc. success is largely based on the location of their storage facilities. Being within all city limits the right outside of all of the major boroughs, they still see great savings and productivity, and this allows Storage Plus, Inc. to offer rates that are way below the competitor's prices.

Storage Plus still provides all of the conveniences that our clients expect from their storage company including; open 7 days a week, free-pickup services, mail box rentals, security and the utmost in their customer service experience!
