

JD's Destroy's The High Cost of The Detox Foot Bath and The Detox Foot Spa

JD's Oriental Health Supply has officially reduced the cost of their most popular line of Detox Foot Baths and Detox Foot Spas to less than $200.00 The most popular model which includes a Far Infrared Belt will be listed at only $179.95.

Sept. 8, 2008 - PRLog -- It's a bold move and it is sure to anger the detox foot spa retailers in the alternative health care industry. However, JD's Oriental Health Supply has officially reduced the cost of their most popular line of Detox Foot Baths and Detox Foot Spas to less than $200.00 The most popular model which includes a Far Infrared Belt will be listed at only $179.95. And the units will continue to carry the same 1 Year warranty. This will assure JD's customers that they are getting the same high quality product they would receive if they spent a larger sum.

The Detox Foot Bath or Detox Foot Spa are not without their share of controversy. Some claim they work and others claim they do nothing. However when you get past the sales hype and the false pitch of the quick buck artist. you realize that something very positive is happening. We receive positive testimonies on a regular basis. Most people will not begin to realize exactly how beneficial the detox sessions are until they have experienced at least 5 detox sessions on the recommended schedule of one session every two or three days This schedule should be continued until a person has experienced series of 14 sessions. It is then best to stop the sessions for 5-10 days and then do another series of 14 session that are spaced out to one session every two to three days.

JD's will continue to offer a higher priced line of Detox Foot Bath products for consumers that are name brand conscious. Furthermore we have price agreements in place with a manufacturer that cannot be broken. However the line of Detox foot Bath products that are being so drastically reduced have always been the most popular line
