Psychic Medium Marie has been certified by the management of the original Long Island Psychic Fair to perform psychic readings at their popular events.

Sept. 26, 2008 - PRLog -- Psychic Medium Marie can now be seen in person at the original Long Island Psychic Fair events. The fair has been continuously running on Long Island for over 20 years and has featured notable psychics. Marie will be bringing her extremely accurate gifts of mediumship to channel the spirit world and to perform Life Readings which include advice/predictions of health, relationships, job/work, family, and fortune.

Psychic Medium Marie has been performing psychic readings for over twenty years and has an accuracy rate of over 98%. This is unusually high for psychic mediums. Marie insists that the people she reads do not divulge any information about themselves.

She is considered to be blessed with the following gifts: Clairvoyance - the ability to see spirits and images from the spirit world, Channeling - the ability to communicate with spirits and relay their messages to the living, Clairaudience - the ability to hear the voices and thoughts of spirits, Clairsentience - the ability to take on the ailments of spirits, Clairallience - the ability to receive smell impressions from a spirit, Clairgustance - the ability to receive taste impressions from a spirit, Psychometry - the ability to sense information about a person through an object, along with many other psychic abilities.

Psychic Medium Marie maintains a "Spirit Blog" at her web portal, <http://www.ny-psychic.com>, which describes some of her recent sessions: "The grandmother spoke a nickname for her grandson to me and I asked if his nickname was something like "Mooky." The visitor became visibly upset at this as he took this as proof that his grandmother was communicating with me. Without saying what the actual name was, he said that Mooky was close enough. My visitor could not look me in the eye and I suspect he was holding back tears."
