

Visa and Travelocity offer two for the price of one flights for Visa Premium cardholders

Visa has partnered with Travelocity India - an online travel agency - to provide extra benefits to Visa Premium[1] cardholders who plan, book and pay for their domestic or international travel, hotel and airline tickets online

Oct. 14, 2008 - PRLog -- Visa has partnered with Travelocity India - an online travel agency - to provide extra benefits to Visa Premium cardholders who plan, book and pay for their domestic or international travel, hotel and airline tickets online at www.travelocity.co.in.

Benefits for Visa Premium cardholders include free flight tickets for companions, complimentary airport drops and discounts on travel bookings. Cardholders can also indulge their passion for travel in India through packages that can be designed to suit their own taste.

“Through our collaboration with Travelocity, we are continuing to provide extra value for our cardholders through new benefits and services. With up to 95 percent of Indian respondents in our 2007 Travel Intentions Survey indicating they were likely to take a holiday in Asia in the next two years, this partnership will help to give Visa cardholders more when they take their next trip,” said Santanu Mukherjee, Country Manager, South Asia, Visa.

Himanshu Singh, Managing Director, Travelocity India said, “We always look forward to bringing our customers more value-additions and are delighted to partner with Visa in India. Travelocity India has designed a range of exciting travel benefits for Visa cardholders and look forward to making their travel planning a more convenient and exciting experience. We are sure that they will find booking online Travelocity India comfortable, secure and will greatly benefit from the range of choices and competitive pricing that we offer.” For more information about the promotions and benefits for Visa Premium cardholders and the applicable terms and conditions, please go to www.travelocity.co.in.
