Oct. 22, 2008 - PRLog -- Fort Washington, MD – The House of Simply D partners with Creative Hysteria, LLC and {stellar.sassy.social} on Fashion benefiting Autism.

The House of Simply D announces today that it has partnered with Creative Hysteria, LLC and {stellar.sassy.social} on a fashion event titled “Frostbite Fall Fashion Showcase”. In this years “Frostbite” show, models will don catwalk favorites with local showcases from The House of Simply D, Jazzy Couture, and Bonita by Bianca Terry. A portion of the proceeds for this evening of fashion and philanthropy will support local affiliates of Autism Speaks, the nation's largest autism advocacy organization. Andrea Harrison (Miss D, House of Simply D) commented “Frostbite will be an exciting and entertaining experience that will showcase collections from local designers ready to freeze you in your tracks with sensational designs.” The event promises to be a production that those with a passion for fashion will not want to miss! Rob Relosa, Senior Partner of Creative Hysteria, LLC said: “Through this partnership with The House of Simply D, we hope to educate the community more about Autism through the art of fashion and encourage anyone to share their interests and experiences with other people locally.” Lastly, Bianca Terry stated “I am really excited and honored to participate in this incredible event with such talented designers. I am also impressed with the astounding work that Autism Speaks has accomplished.”

The “Frostbite” show will be coming to Satin Dolls Banquet Hall located at 603 Cady Drive Ft. Washington, MD (Saturday, November 15th at 6pm). Interested patrons may purchase tickets online at www.ticketleap.com or call 877-849-5387. Ticket holders will have a chance to win fabulous door prizes.
