It was very well organized and the service was excellent. The Hotels were beautiful and very comfortable. The guides that accompanied us in every city were very professional, friendly and accommodating, answering all our questions and explaining a lot of the things we did not know. The bus was very good, so was the driver. We enjoyed seeing and experiencing your great country and culture. As for the Maldives, the arrangements were excellent, from transportation to hotel accommodation. As for yourself, you were an excellent tour leader, always patient, friendly, and trying to please everyone in the group. My husband, my two children, and myself thank you very much and hope this trip shall only be the beginning of our future trips to India.”
