

Atlanta ProSource Services, Mold-Be-Gone offering additional services throughout Georgia

ATLANTA, GA - Certified Water Damage Cleanup and Mold Remediation & Decontamination services throughout the Peach Tree State. Atlanta ProSource is qualified to offer Water Damage Cleanup and Mold Remediation and Decontamination services.

Jan. 21, 2009 - PRLog -- Water Damage Clean-Up and Mold Remediation and Decontamination team. Known for their IIRCC Certified, EPA and OSHA compliant clean-up and decontamination techniques, the folks at Atlanta ProSource have hired a fresh team of Water Damage Clean-up Technicians with the expertise to cope with the unique clean-up, remediation and decontamination challenges unique to homes or offices that have been assaulted by water damage.

Whether it rushes in the aftermath of a storm, a flood or the breakdown of a faulty appliance, water damage in your home or office is too often devastating.

Pooled water in your basement, attic results in more serious than a couple of soggy possessions -- drywall, wood, and even concrete often act as sponges, drawing water and consequently water damage higher and deeper into the structure of your home or business, unleashing rot, bio-hazardous mold blooms and worse.

To reclaim a home or business, folks need professional water damage cleanup technicians to remove water and moisture from carpets, floors, and walls as well remediate mold and mildew odor. That's why Atlanta ProSource will be offering Georgia's homeowners and business owners the expertise and technology required to safely dry, deodorize and disinfect walls, floors and even ceilings flooded and damaged by water or infected by mold.

"Expanding our water damage cleanup slash mold remediation and decontamination service offering from just here in the Atlanta area to throughout Georgia is something APS has been looking forward to for awhile," said Atlanta ProSource spokesperson Anthony Denatala. "We are ready to help folks here in Georgia – whether they're in Athens or Valdosta recover from the aftermath of a water main break, storm or flood with the best clean-up and remediation services available anywhere in the Capital of the New South." E Morales added: "Atlanta ProSource has a team of professional water damage cleanup and mold remediation technicians dedicated to helping Georgia's families and business owners quickly and affordably."

ABOUT Atlanta ProSource Services,

Founded by Anthony Denatala, Atlanta ProSource Services is the kind of water damage clean-up Company that understands need for competent and considerate services in unwanted situations.
