The DIVA Group is on a mission to present positive images of Big Beautiful Women. It is our goal to inspire and portray the beauty found in curvier individuals that as children, we were taught to be ashamed of. Although doors have begun to open for plus size women, The DIVA Group is here in FULL FORCE to open the doors even wider. Based in Charlotte, The DIVA Group is a full service entertainment company made up of confident, classy, sexy and beautiful individuals that provide fashion shows, calendars, party hosting, seminars and other events.

The DIVA Group was founded by Kimberley Dingle to embark on a journey to create a company that caters to the size sexy female. It was from Kimberly's long time employment with Ashley Stewart that convinced her to promote her first BBW party. Based on the turnout of that first party, The DIVA Group was formed. Kimberley, along with her sister Nicole began promoting parties and charity events with much success.

With the growing economic issues facing many in our community, 25% of the proceeds will be donated to Crisis Assistance Ministries. Crisis Assistance Ministry serves the low-income citizens of Mecklenburg County, often classified as "the working poor," who are facing financial emergencies and are struggling to meet life's basic needs.

"2009 Celebration of Curves" will be hosted by radio personality Jaye Delai. There will be performances by the Kurvy Kuties, a plus sized dance troupe of Atlanta, Georgia along with other local entertainers. There will be a special appearance by Ms. Plus America Lifetime, Debbie Shannon.
