Two Trolls Teach Us About the Golden Rule

This whimsical children’s tale about two troll children, Bug and Boo, is about lessons learned and how life sometimes provides answers in unexpected ways.

May 18, 2009 - PRLog -- One day Bug and Boo pick a bouquet of wildflowers for their mother. As they make their way home through an enchanted forest, they encounter a bear, a squirrel and a moose, all looking for friendship. They become friends and learn that happiness can be given and received in unusual ways.

Happy Flowers is a heartwarming yet humorous story creating lively characters that children will love. Jodi Duncan has created a memorable book that brings an uplifting message about the Golden Rule. Young readers will see that they can give and receive blessings while performing kind acts toward others.
