Summary: Importing vehicles has not been an easy task. First-time dealers, companies and individuals had to weigh many variables before they picked a 4x4 exporter from Thailand and in the end the choice end up being between reliability and price competitiveness. If they picked a reliable vendor who had been in business for decades and was trusted world over they had to compromise on price, but if they went for price they often got scammed by con artists who offered below cost price to lure them into a trap. Fortunately customers can now get the lowest price in Thailand from a reliable company headed by a 23 year veteran of auto exporting. They get reliability, great pricing, great quality, great selection and great customer service from Sam.
