June 16, 2009 - PRLog -- With the economy in such a rut right now it is refreshing to hear that some businesses are actually paying more for something. iSold it on eBay, a nation wide chain of ebay retail drop off stores with three locations in Arizona, will buy your DVD and Blu-ray movies for cash! While most companies are paying next to nothing for Dvd movies now that the masses are converting over to blu-ray (even on a trade in credit) iSold it is paying more and putting that more right into your pocket.

Chris Ruh, owner of iSold it on eBay in Chandler, Arizona say's "here at iSold it on eBay, we have long been known to the local area as a trusted place to cash in no longer wanted or seldom used items for a quick boost to the pocket book. Dvd movies, however, where being turned down at our stores because they where not producing enough value for our clients on eBay. We put together this new program to help fill that void. Now instead of us consigning these items clients can get paid cash right on the spot and we take it from there!"

iSold it on eBay has apparently been doing very well for their clients selling items such as Louis Vuitton handbags, Callaway golf clubs, and used Verizon wireless cell phones, but they typically take in almost any item that will fetch at least $50.00 on eBay. "You just never know what is going to be for sale next because our inventory changes with fresh items coming in daily to each store location. " says Ruh. Whether you are shopping for a great deal, looking to find some cash in your closet, or just tired of looking at that shelf of DVD's you never watch iSold it is your one stop shop helping you maximize your wallet's potential.
