

ACN Celebrates Grand Opening of World Headquarters, Holds Largest Training Event in Company History

ACN holds grand opening ceremonies for its new world headquarters in Concord, North Carolina. This kicks off weekend that includes ACN's largest training event in 16-year company history. ACN also pledges support for local charity in Charlotte.

June 23, 2009 - PRLog -- CONCORD, NC - Concord based ACN, Inc. is preparing for an exciting weekend ahead, marked by corporate grand opening festivities, an International Training Event drawing thousands, including one very notable special guest, and a priceless opportunity to give back.

Having recently consolidated all U.S. operations to Concord, ACN will commemorate the grand opening of their new World Headquarters on Thursday, June 25. Serving as the central support system for all world operations, the ACN facility spans over 17 acres with over 140,000 square feet of office space – with room for additional expansion. The company employs 486 people in Concord, with 335 of those jobs being generated since May 2008.

The official launch of the new location is perfectly synchronized with the timing of the ACN International Training Event in Charlotte. From June 26-28, nearly 25,000 ACN Independent Representatives from across the country, including representatives from Canada, Europe and Asia Pacific, will arrive in the Charlotte to attend the training event. With sessions taking place at both Time Warner Cable Arena and Bojangles' Coliseum, attendees will hear ACN Co-Founders and top sales leaders present information about new product announcements, training and sales techniques, new training tools and leadership skills. Guest speaker will be multi-billionaire Donald J. Trump, as he has personally endorsed ACN since 2006. A natural progression of this relationship was the ACN appearance in March on the primetime reality show, The Celebrity Apprentice 2. Learn more at <http://www.acnprimetime.com>

During International Training Events, ACN collects contributions from thousands of generous representatives and employees for Ronald McDonald House Charities (RMH). The company then matches the donations dollar for dollar. Greg Provenzano, ACN President and Co-Founder explains, "This was the perfect charity for ACN because of its global reach and outstanding commitment to children and their families. Plus, with our World Headquarters now located in Concord, North Carolina, supporting the RMH of Charlotte was an easy decision because it's right in our backyard." The RMH of Charlotte is scheduled to open sometime in 2010 and will serve the families of children being treated at Levine Children's Hospital and Presbyterian Healthcare's Hemby Children's Hospital.

Provenzano states, "This weekend marks an important chapter in the ACN history books. Not only is Charlotte host to ACN's largest International Training Event in our history, but it's also just minutes away from our brand new, state-of-the-art World Headquarters in Concord, North Carolina." Continues Provenzano, "We simply couldn't have picked a better area to call home, or a better venue to host our independent representatives for what promises to be a record-breaking weekend of training, motivation and networking."
