June 24, 2009 - PRLog -- Whenever we plan a long trip on vacation or holidays, we need a magic stick sort of thing which could create home like environment away from the home. In 1960’s first time Volkswagen camper van seeded a hope in this direction. Today, its splitscreen camper van has turned the after of a many camper services provider. Hence, New Zealand based leading online camper van services provider classic-campers often offers exclusive camper van services with significant discount and gift voucher to all its customers. Again it has official announced special gift voucher for its customers.

It was a brief media session today and apart from services and gift Voucher Company representatives were prominently speaking about varieties of camper vans. The ultimate motive was to spread up awareness. The primary thrust was upon pop-up camper vans. A many things viz. stories and incidents were shared. For instance, ample amount of space in the trailer of camper vans is just perfect for the family. It is perfect because during long journey, your kids and other family members have option to have good napping time.

Well! It is light vehicle and can be easily towed through full size car or small truck but for gaining this sort of advantage the pop-up camper vans have compromised with inbuilt toilet facility. Though, you have alternate in form of portable toilets for emergencies or you can utilize the campground facilities as well. Now-a-days, features like cassette toilets and shower facilities are also available but only in bit higher priced pop-up camper vans. Even, kitchen facilities have been improved in higher price range of pop-up camper vans.

During answering session, classic-campers’ representatives more precisely elaborated the modern pop-up campers. They appreciated cooking facilities. They did not forget to mention extra living space which can be used as extra room. You never know about the weather condition if you are on the adventurous tour in remote urban area. So, in adverse weather condition, such extra space and good cooking condition can be a boon. Your kids can spend good time in extra space with their games and toys. It was really pleasing experience to hear all these words direct from the experts’ mouth.
