ETHOS ENVIRONMENTAL INCORPORATED

"Up 20.45% in morning trading"

Company Profile: <http://www.otcpicks.com/ethos-environmental.htm>

Ethos Environmental, Inc. , a San Diego-based corporation, is the manufacturer of award-winning fuel reformulating products that help industries meet environmental regulations and relieve skyrocketing fuel costs. By using EthosFR+, commercial vehicles can increase fuel economies, while reducing harmful emissions.

GREEN STAR ALTERNATIVE ENERGY INCORPORATED

"Up 5.77% in morning trading"

Company Profile: http://www.otcpicks.com/Newsletter/GSAE_eProfile_091708.htm

Green Star Alternative Energy is an environmentally conscious, renewable energy producer. The Company is working to develop more than 300 MW (megawatts) of clean electricity through wind energy. The corporate revenue model is two-fold: the use of a renewable resource allows not only for the creation of environmentally friendly energy, but the granting of carbon (greenhouse gas) emission credits which may be traded and sold. Green Star is pursuing a significant opportunity to provide clean energy to the growing Republic of Serbia and neighbouring European countries. Through a joint venture with key wind farm and power trading company Notos, Green Star will become the nation's first developer of wind power. GSAE is focussed on green technology and sustainable energy programs like wind turbines, hydro electric power generation, and other renewable electricity models.

AMERIRESOURCE TECHNOLOGIES INCORPORATED

"Up 100.00% in morning trading"

AmeriResource is a diversified holding company with headquarters in Las Vegas, Nevada. For more information on the Company's subsidiary, visit www.attosolutions.com.

CUMULUS MEDIA INCORPORATED

"Up 1.45% in morning trading"

Cumulus Media, Inc. engages in the acquisition, operation, and development of frequency modulation and amplitude modulation radio stations in mid-size radio markets in the United States. The company, through its investment in Cumulus Media Partners, LLC, also operates radio station clusters for large-sized markets. It also provides sales and marketing services for one radio station under a local marketing agreement. As of December 31, 2007, Cumulus Media owned and operated 303 stations in 56 mid-sized U.S. markets and operated 33 radio stations in 8 markets, including San Francisco, Dallas, Houston, and Atlanta that were owned by CMP under a local marketing agreement. The company was founded in 1997 and is based in Atlanta, Georgia.

NOVO ENERGIES CORPORATION

"Up 66.67% in morning trading"

Novo is a public company trading on the Over the Counter Bulletin Board Market ("OTCBB") under the symbol NVNC, with offices in New York, NY and Montreal, Quebec. The Company's mission is to continue expanding within the renewable energy sector by developing and implementing renewable energy solutions while maintaining its commitment to conserve energy, natural resources and help reduce pollutants and unwanted wastes. Based upon a novel technology, Novo's wholly owned subsidiary WTL Renewable Energy, Inc. will plan, build, own and operate renewable energy plants throughout North America that will transform residual plastics and tires to valuable liquid low carbon fuels such as diesel, gasoline and fuel additives.
