EMJ Cleaning is serving Alpharetta with residential and commercial cleaning services.

Sept. 2, 2009 - PRLog -- Alpharetta is a northern suburb of metro Atlanta. The city of Alpharetta has beautiful subdivisions, good schools and high-end shopping. EMJ Cleaning has been servicing this area with maid service, residential and commercial cleaning for more than two years. They are now targeting the Alpharetta homeowners and commercial business owners for their cleaning business growth.

EMJ Cleaning has been providing quality service to Atlanta residents for upwards of 13 years, leaving a trail of spotless homes and pleased customers in its wake. Their wide range of services includes both residential and commercial cleaning, as well as everything from windows cleaning to carpets cleaning, to boat detailing.

Todd Scott, an Alpharetta resident and business owner, has been happily using EMJ for a year, said, “After using EMJ, I have never used another cleaning service. In my business, having the ability to respond timely is critical. On several occasions, I had to get three properties cleaned in one week. I sent an email to EMJ, and they scheduled, and cleaned all three (that week).”

Another satisfied Alpharetta customer notes that the EMJ crew is “in and out in a timely manner” and that at two to three times less expensive than other companies, “They are the best value for quality and price.”
