A Las Vegas contractor specializing in the great outdoors building Perfect Patios and Patio Covers for shade comfort and price. We use concrete ,masonry ,aluminum ,steel , glass, wood, trex deck stone and plants to create a Perfect Las Vegas Patio.

Sept. 7, 2009 - PRLog -- Paradise Builders builds high quality aluminum patio covers in the Las Vegas Valley using standard engineering and custom designs for that on of a kind patio cover that no one else has. Patio covers are made in solid and lattice combinations depending on what the home owners needs are. An upgraded patio cover called the Ultimate Patio Cover has an insulated roof system that can be enclosed in to another room if desired . We use all the resources that can give us the best design and functionality for the space we are building ,starting with a design overview . Landscape is a term used for all of the outdoor spaces and we design with outdoor living in mind for all seasons by having shelter ,a place to cook and a place to relax and eat . Out door BBQ islands are one of the easiest elements to incorporate into the overall design. The islands can be masonry units or custom stainless steel cabinets with stone countertops along with beverage centers ,ice makers etc .

The outdoor living room gets more and more luxurious every year. Fireplaces,fire pits water features bars pools decks pavilions pergolas awnings retractable awnings ,drop shades canopies stucco patio covers tile roof stand alone out buildings for kitchens entertainment centers with lush and plush landscaping .
