Toll Brothers, the nation's leading builder of luxury homes, invites home buyers to attend its National Fall Sales Event, which will be held in all Toll Brothers communities nationwide. Buyers at Hampton Hall and Hampton Pointe, near Hilton Head Island, will be able to take advantage of very special savings and incentives, making this an excellent time to buy a luxurious Toll Brothers dream home in South Carolina.

The Toll Brothers National Fall Sales Event begins Saturday, September 26th and runs through Sunday, October 4th. Sales and incentive packages will vary among communities. In addition, TBI Mortgage Company, a subsidiary of Toll Brothers, is offering an excellent selection of mortgage programs with fabulous interest rates, including both fixed and adjustable rate mortgages. Those interested can visit tollsalesevent.com or tbimortgage.com for more information. They can also call or stop by Hampton Hall and Hampton Pointe to learn about specific details.

“With the special savings and incentive packages being offered during the National Fall Sales Event, now is the perfect time to buy a new Toll Brothers home,” said Walt Schwartz, Division President. “Interest rates are still at historic low rates, and we're able to offer really great mortgage programs through TBI Mortgage Company,” he added.

With the special incentives and low mortgage rates that are still available, this sales event offers a rare opportunity to add significant value to a home purchase. In addition to the amazing packages, as well as the high quality, luxury, and style of a Toll Brothers home, buyers will have the peace of mind that comes with choosing one of the nation's most financially sound builders.

In fact, Toll Brothers was voted #1 among home builders in Quality of Products and Services, Quality of Management, Financial Soundness, Long-term Investment, and Use of Corporate Assets in FORTUNE® magazine's World's Most Admired Companies 2009. “People have faith in Toll Brothers because of our remarkable history and our impeccable reputation. It's the reason we've enjoyed continued appeal even during challenging times,” said Schwartz. “Anyone considering a luxury home purchase should make this event a priority. We're already seeing signs of economic growth in this country, so it might not be long before this buyer's market ends,” he added.

Although Toll Brothers is probably best known for its expansive single-family and estate homes, the luxury builder offers an amazingly wide range of home designs, including condominiums, carriage homes, and townhomes; and a vast palette of community types – such as urban, active adult, resort, and much more.

The celebrations that will take place this fall nationwide will offer buyers a unique package of savings and incentives created for this event only. During Toll Brothers' National Fall Sales Event, home buyers can save more and get the most house for their money!

Both Hampton Hall and Hampton Pointe are located minutes from Hilton Head, Savannah, and Beaufort and offer a wealth of on-site amenities and award-winning home designs. Models are open Monday-Friday from 11-6 and on Saturday and Sunday from 10-6. A sales professional can be reached every day at (843) 208-9000.
