

Ladies' Clothing For Summer 2009/2010

Ackermans keeps South Africa's ladies cool, comfortable and beautiful throughout the summer

Dec. 9, 2009 - PRLog -- Ackermans ladies' summer clothing range provides stylish relief from the heat for the fashion-conscious. As South Africa heads into summer, with temperatures rising and festivity growing around the country, Ackermans' range of ladies' wear is keeping South African women cool and comfortable, whilst looking trendy.

Take a look at Ackermans' ladies' clothing catalogue for summer clothing that is fashionable and offers great value for money.

Ladies' clothing trends for summer 2009/2010

A 60s, relaxed look is a hit this summer. Bold prints in a bohemian style, with flowing, light fabrics are designed to keep women comfortable, cool and trendy, all at the same time. Jewellery and accessories in earthy tones mixed with bright stones, beads and gems are the perfect accompaniment to the look.

What the latest Ackermans' ladies' clothing range has in store for you

The maxi dress and voile dress are two items for summer 2009/2010 that no woman can do without. Made from cotton designed to keep you cool in warm weather, the dresses can be jazzed up for a more formal function, or worn with simple accessories for a casual look. These dresses provide comfort all summer long, and are ultra affordable at only R99.95 for voile dresses and R149.95 for maxi dresses.

Summery tops are also available from Ackermans in a variety of styles and prints. Strappy tops (R79.95) provide the perfect addition to your wardrobe and can be matched with pants, shorts or skirts. Cropped jeans (119.95) and Capri pants (R79.95) ideally complement these tops, and come in a range of co-ordinating colours. The strappy top is a no-fuss item that brings functionality and style to an outfit, whatever the occasion.

Staying with the bohemian fashion theme of this summer, tunics (R119.95) are available from Ackermans in a variety of prints and colours. These flowing tops are a smart-casual option for summer days and evenings.

Sandals (R54.95) are a great choice of footwear for South Africa's warm days, whether you're on the move or relaxing at the beach. Pumps (R49.95) are another fantastic investment for summer as they provide all the comfort of sneakers and keep your feet just as cool as sandals do.

Look as good as you feel

"Ackermans ladies' clothes are such good value for money. We really put a lot of effort into creating items that are made from high-quality textiles, and that match the trends of the moment," says Diane St Clair Moor, Marketing Manager of Ackermans. "We're really pleased with our summer 2009/2010 catalogue and feel it provides exactly what our customers are looking for this season."

Ackermans ensures longevity of its clothing products through the use of high-quality fabrics and materials.

Ackermans ladies' clothing allows you to spice up your wardrobe at affordable prices this summer. The range also keeps you cool, looking beautiful and lasts long after the warm weather has left.

Make sure you find an Ackermans branch near you and prepare for a hot summer with Ackermans ladies' clothes!
