A Home Daycare is a very profitable business--especially if you own your own home! Not many people know that running a home daycare business out of your home (especially a home daycare) truly helps out at tax time! Let's talk about business expenses & tax deductions.....

Home Daycare Business expenses:

Toys- If you buy toys and use them in your home daycare, they are now a business expense-you write a percentage of them off!

Cleaning Supplies- Buy cleaners to clean up after the daycare children-write them off!

Vehicle- Do you make payments on a vehicle which you use to transport the daycare children to the park or school--write a percentage of it off! (You can write off the gas & mileage as well)

Dishes- Did you buy new dishes or pots and pans so you could cook for the daycare children and serve them--write them off!

See where I am going with this? Virtually ANYTHING you use to start or maintain a home daycare can be written off at TAX time either in part or whole. They are home daycare business expenses. Items used exclusively for your home daycare are written off 100%. Items used in part by your home daycare are written off by a percentage. My home daycare accounting forms will calculate this percentage for you. No need to worry! (more information on my Home Daycare Business Accounting Forms can be found at www.StartingHomeDaycare.com.)

These are just a portion of the items you can write off at tax time. Other items include everyday household bills like a portion of your heating bill, water bill, phone bill cable bill, internet bill..... the list goes on and on. All you have to do is SAVE YOU RECEIPTS and use my Home Daycare Business Accounting Forms to keep track of your income and expenses. And for only $19.95 for my #1 Daycare Forms you will be able to keep track of your Home Daycare Business Accounts and be able to start a home daycare business of your own!!
