May 15, 2010 - PRLog -- This Dream Home is the fourth to be built in Hamilton County, Mrs. Emmert said, while previous homes were built in North Georgia.

Pratt & Associates (<http://www.prattliving.com>) is building the home, on a lot in The Overlook subdivision, she said. The Overlook is in North Chattanooga, off of Hixson Pike and W. Fairfax, and boasts views of the Tennessee River and surrounding areas.

The $100 tickets for the 2010 St. Jude Dream Home go on sale at the Dream Home and other Pratt model homes on May 15.

“St. Jude is such a wonderful organization, and the people who are involved in the Dream Home are great people,” said Win Pratt, vice president of Pratt & Associates. “We’re just as interested in building strong, healthy families as we are in building quality homes.”

The home has an approximate value of $350,000. Mr. Pratt, said this is his company’s second year of working with St. Jude. Construction is completed and the home, located in The Overlook in North Chattanooga, is open for tours on Saturday and Sundays, he said.

The house has five bedrooms, four bathrooms and a two-car garage, Mr. Pratt said. The master bedroom, three other bedrooms, and three bathrooms are upstairs. The ground floor has a bedroom, a bathroom, kitchen, dining room, breakfast area and office, plus a mudroom separating the garage and kitchen.

Amenities include solid-surface countertops, hardwood floors, tile floors in bathrooms and well appointed kitchen with a lot of space for the aspiring chef, Mr. Pratt said.

The drawing for the house and other prizes will be on June 27. For more information call Chris Trainor at 423-838-3750 or visit stjudedreamhome.org.

Last year’s Chattanooga Dream Home raised more than $700,000 to benefit St. Jude. According to ALSAC, the nationwide Dream Home program is the hospital’s single largest fundraiser.
