I get the opportunity to review a lot of products that come across my desk, so its easy to lose interest in a lot of what I see. That was, until recently when I met Andrew Rusbach. Andrew, online host of the new Save My Marriage Today Premium Home Study Course, asked me to have a look over his new course and tell him what I thought. At first I was skeptical, but I thought, hey, I have friends who are unhappy with their partners, and some that believe they are in bad marriages, and this information might be good for one of them, so I decided to check it out.

By the time I had finished, I was hooked! I realized for the first time, that this course would be really helpful for couples with marital difficulties. In fact, even couples in good marriages can learn something from this. This course contains core principles that apply to couples young and old, and marriages both old and new. So I thought I would share my thoughts about this great new product with you too. This is something every couple should see. Everybody knows someone who is in a difficult or failing marriage, or it may even be you.....

Andrew's home study course helps all couples consider their relationship problems and how their misconceptions and attitudes can help shape a recovery or add to their ordeal. Its quite normal for a marriage to go through cycles, and arguments will happen from time to time. In fact, one thing they talk about in the course is how disagreements are normal. It's nothing to be ashamed about! Its how you deal with those arguments and disagreements that determines the health of your relationship. Andrew, Richard and Amy invite you to examine your thoughts and beliefs, and encourage you to modify patterns of behavior so that you are able to rebuild communication as a couple in a positive way. If you are serious about saving your marriage and being the one who is instrumental in making these changes, you should learn all Andrew, Richard and Amy have to tell you.

In addition to this is a free email consultation so that customers can discuss any additional marriage issues with a member of the team.
