May 23, 2010 - PRLog -- SUBURBAN & COUNTY TRAFFIC TICKETS

The suburban and county courts in the Dallas Fort Worth area have very different procedures. Some lower fines significantly when you hire an attorney because it is more efficient for the court to handle attorney cases. Some courts set cases directly for trial and others allow an opportunity for your attorney to meet with the prosecutor multiple times, giving you more time before you have to pay your fine. Knowledge of the literally dozens of different procedures across the metroplex gives Richard H. Martin, DFW Ticket Attorney, and his clients a real advantage. Experience in the many DFW courts gives Richard the ability to know when a prosecutor is giving the best deal that court will give.

Why Hire A Ticket Attorney?

People's motivations for hiring lawyers in Class C Misdemeanor cases include, among other things:

- * having warrants they need lifted
- * needing a lot of time to pay
- * being intimidated by the system because of language or past experiences
- * being too annoyed by the process to go through it
- * holding a Commerical Drivers License
- * being too busy to handle it themselves
- * not wanting to miss work time
- * considering it so important that their violations don't go on their record that it is worth the low fee.

If these or some other reasons apply to you, I can help!
