When devoted teacher Monica Smith takes Sean Beauvais to task for failing to show a genuine interest in his son's life, little does she know that her tongue lashing will prompt him to offer her a high-paying job as the boy's live-in babysitter. All too familiar with the debonair player's lascivious reputation, Monica knows she should heed her gut instinct to avoid Sean at all costs – especially given her devastating history of heartbreak; however, she ultimately accepts the millionaire's tempting offer, unaware of just how unprepared she is to ride the emotional roller coaster that awaits...

Secrets On Lake Drive is a heartrending read. In it, author Tina Martin relates an encouraging story of overcoming pain and heartbreak on the road to ultimate redemption. Over the course of our lives, none of us will be spared the emotional fallout from deception, lies, and/or betrayal, but our past does not dictate our future, and the best remedy for a broken heart is often a refreshing new start. In Secrets On Lake Drive, Martin highlights this invaluable life lesson through the trials and tribulations of her protagonist, Monica, who endures her fair share of difficulties but remains dedicated to finding true peace and lasting happiness – and refuses to accept less than what she knows she deserves. As such, Martin's compelling tale serves as an encouraging reminder to press ever forward, in the full realization that the greatest rewards always follow the most arduous tests. A recommended read.
