

Nassau County DUI Defense Lawyer Launches New Site to Assist Those Charged With DUI in Nassau County

The Law Offices of Michael S. Discioarro, LLC Announced Today the Launching of a New Website Helping Those Accused of DUI in Nassau County, New York.

Oct. 22, 2010 - PRLog -- Nassau County DA Kathleen Rice has made national headlines in her aggressive prosecution of DWI cases. Fines, Jail time and license suspensions have all increased under her administration. Against this unforgiving backdrop, the Law Offices of Michael S. Discioarro, LLC has opened a new website to assist those accused of DWI in Nassau County, New York. " It is by far the toughest office in America on DWI cases. The DA has her agenda and it is playing out in the courts and hurting a lot of good people." Mr. Discioarro said.

He went on to say that cases that normally receive plea deal are being taken to trial because of the harsh penalties demanded by the prosecutor's office. One person was even charged with murder after killing a girl in a dwi accident. A first in America. Drunk driving arrests are up all over the country. With many violent crimes going down, politicians are using DWI arrests to help their political jobs and put many good people in jail that do not deserve to be there. People that would never commit and have never committed any other crime. Mr. Discioarro can be reached at 917-519-8417 or by viewing <http://www.duinassau.com>
