Jan. 6, 2011 - PRLog -- Jaipur, Rajasthan – January 7, 2011 – India has numerous holiday destinations that attract both domestic and international tourists. One such enchanting location is Jaipur, which is popularly hailed as the “Pink City” due to the omnipresence of this hue in its marvelous structures. As the capital city of Rajasthan and the first well-planned city of India, Jaipur is a tourist’s delight with thousands of foreign travelers flocking to the city every year.

When you first land at this beautiful city, the foremost issue that demands immediate attention is the accommodation. If you are on a planned budget, there are so many cheap hotels in Jaipur with the best amenities. However, the name that stands out is Golden Hotel that has been serving its guests with distinction year after year. As one of the renowned Rajasthan hotels, it offers you a lifetime experience in a limited budget. Whatever your budget is, Golden Hotel always ensures complete services and amenities by satisfying your individual tastes and preferences. Centrally located in Jaipur, the Hotel is only a walking distance away from both the central bus stand and the railway station.

Travellers looking for Rajasthani style accommodation in economy hotels in Jaipur find the Golden Hotel living up to their expectations with Rajasthani exteriors and highly contemporary interiors. Always expect a traditional welcome from its cordial staff upon your arrival. The hotel boasts 75 AC and non AC rooms of various categories to suit your budget. Visit the website JaipurHotelGolden.com to know various room tariffs and other important details. Every room is equipped with cable television, telephone with global direct dialing, and hot and cold water facilities.
