

Sandeep Marwah Motivated Students on National Youth Day

The Birth Anniversary of Swami Vivekanand is celebrated as National Youth Day in India

Jan. 12, 2011 - PRLog -- The birth anniversary of Swami Vivekanand the great preacher of the country has been celebrated today as National Youth Day all over India. The management and Board of Marwah Studios, a creative enterprises also organized the youth day in their campus today.

Reminding the good words of Swami Vivekanand, Sandeep Marwah President of Marwah Studios said, "We have never believe in discrimination, nor the cast and the creed but I have divided the society into three-people who have no enthusiasm and lazy belong to third class, but those who with little push and pull move belong to second. The people who have enthusiasm, ready to face all sorts of problems, hindrances and ready to achieve their goals are the top class people"

The session was just a part of the regular studies at Asian Academy of Film And Television, Asian School of Media Studies, Asian School of Graphics And Animation, Asian School Of Performing Arts and Asian Business School.

The country like India where 60 percent of the population is youth, it is necessary to motivate and develop culture with this group of people for the country to come up, Marwah added.
