

NOKR stands ready to assist families affected by the tornado activity in the Southern US

Massive storms across the Southern US cause great loss of life - NOKR stands ready to assist families in their time of need

April 28, 2011 - PRLog -- The Next Of Kin Registry(NOKR) would like to inform those who have family members visiting or living in the Southern US to visit the Next Of Kin Registry website, www.nokr.org to register vital information about their family members in the event this information is needed by the authorities or search and rescue teams. If you have a photograph please upload this on the registration page as this aids in the identification process. NOKR search information will be provided to state and local authorities.

NOKR was established as a FREE tool for daily emergencies and national disasters. NOKR is your emergency contact system to help if you or your family member is missing, injured or deceased. NOKR is the central depository for Emergency Contact information in the United States plus 87 other countries. NOKR is a non-profit humanitarian organization dedicated to bridging rapid emergency contact information. NOKR was established in January 2004, for daily emergency situations.

NOKR provides the public a free proactive service to store your emergency contacts, next of kin and vital medical information that would be critical to emergency response agencies. Stored information is only accessible via a secure area that is only accessible by emergency public trust agencies that have registered with NOKR.
