

Texas Hostin becomes a subsidiary of TIERRA Hosting

We are pleased to announce that Texas Hostin has become a subsidiary of TIERRA Hosting. This merger will provide Texas Hostin the opportunity to take advantage of TIERRA Hosting's great fleet of fantastic servers and wonderful customer support.

Nov. 3, 2011 - PRLog -- Today it was announced that Texas Hostin (<http://www.texashost.in>) has officially become a subsidiary of TIERRA Hosting, LLC.

TIERRA Hosting's responded that they are very pleased by this merger, "Texas Hostin joining the TIERRA family is a great opportunity for our friends and neighbors in Texas to monopolize on the fantastic infrastructure that makes up TIERRA Hosting". They added, "We will be adding two additional servers very soon which will be dedicated just to Texas Hostin derived clients".

Texas Hostin has been in the web hosting industry since 2010. Since that time they have accumulated 118 hosted clients. All clients of the company will automatically be "rolled over" to TIERRA Hosting. In addition, 2 servers under Texas Hostin's control will be migrated to TIERRA Hosting's control.

It was also mentioned that Texas Hostin will be getting a face-lift as the designers of TIERRA Hosting are creating a new and unique website for them. When visited websites' address at <http://www.texashost.in> presents a clean and appealing web page.
