Atlanta, Ga. Jan. 18, 2012: Founder of HIT Consultant, Fred Pennic, offered his expertise for a second time this year to Healthcare IT News. This article's topic surrounded tips for successful Telehealth initiatives. This article marks the second written contribution in 2012 for HIT Consultant Pennic.

"This article highlights the emerging role that telehealth plays in the healthcare landscape to address the gaps when providing care to patients in remote and rural areas across the country," said Pennic. "Telehealth, along with mobile health, will continue to empower patients with the tools necessary to proactively manage their healthcare choices and decisions".

This will be the second time Pennic has been published in Healthcare IT News for the year 2012. The first article published on Jan. 9 was titled, Six Ways to Use Business Intelligence Software.
