

Wallin & Klarich Retained to Defend CA School Teacher Robert Bryan Accused of Lewd Acts with Child

The criminal defense law firm of Wallin & Klarich has been retained to represent Palm Desert resident and school teacher Mr. Robert Bryan who is being recently accused of lewd conduct with minors in California.

Aug. 3, 2012 - PRLog -- TUSTIN, CA – Wallin and Klarich, an AV rated Southern California criminal defense law firm has been retained to defend Palm Desert resident and school teacher Robert Bryan as to his recent arrest for allegations of sexual molestation [Penal Code Section 288(a)], as well as for allegations that he annoyed and/or molested minors [California Penal Code Section 647.6]. Case Number 201233339.

“Mr. Bryan vehemently denies the allegations, and he has been an outstanding educator for over 30 years. Mr. Bryan has never been convicted of any criminal offense in his entire life, and has been a local homeowner for 26 years. He has taught thousands of students over these almost three decades” emphasized Attorney Paul J. Wallin, Senior Partner of Wallin & Klarich.

Mr. Bryan has worked for the Desert Sands Unified School District since 1986. He was arrested by the Indian Wells Police from his Palm Desert home on August 1, 2012 and was released on bail on Thursday, August 2, 2012. His case will be pending at the Indio Superior Court, and his arraignment is scheduled for October 1, 2012.

It is critical to point out that Mr. Bryan has not been formally charged with any crimes as of this date. The decision is now in the hands of the District Attorney office.

As are all persons in this country, Mr. Bryan is presumed innocent of all charges at this time. We urge the community to reserve judgment and to wait until the evidence is presented in a court of law.

We ask that you respect our client’s privacy at this time and make no attempts to contact him or his family for comment. Please contact Wallin and Klarich for any further details as to this matter. You can reach us at <http://www.wklaw.com> or email us at pjw@wklaw.com
