

Tampa Restaurants Offer Discount Certificates to Support Local Charities

ShuffleAndDineTampa.com Begins Marketing Coupons to Stimulate the Tampa Restaurant Scene and Aid Local Charities

Nov. 5, 2012 - PRLog -- Tampa, FL — Tampa Bay based Shuffle and Dine Tampa this month began marketing a playing card like packet of discount certificates celebrating local restaurants. Many of those included are dining spots that are hidden gems and highly rated by diners.

Resembling a deck of playing cards, the 52-certificate packet entitles diners to ten dollars off the price of meals at the fifty-two selected restaurants. The deck is being sold online and through local institutions. Shuffle and Dine is the perfect stocking stuffer for all those foodies this holiday season.

“Shuffle and Dine is a great way for families to enjoy fabulous discounts at quality Tampa restaurants,” says Brett McDowell, director of Shuffle and Dine Tampa. “We handpick the most interesting places around town so you’ll find exciting new dining ideas to try out. I guarantee that none will be boring chain restaurants.”

The list features a variety of cuisines domestic and foreign.

McDowell says that Shuffle and Dine Tampa seeks to energize the local restaurant scene while at the same time supporting the local community. One-third of the price of each coupon deck goes to charities such as Kids Charity of Tampa Bay, Inc.

“It’s an $800 value that saves consumers money while also benefitting our local Tampa community,” adds McDowell. “You can buy the Shuffle and Dine Tampa through schools, charities, businesses, organizations, churches or online.”

Each deck also contains four free bonus cards from other businesses extending special offers. This year’s includes free golf for two at Cheval Golf and Country Club ($170 value), a two-week free membership at the Cheval Athletic Club ($150 value), two free admissions to Side Splitters Comedy Club ($30 value) and four free garlic knots from Marchello’s Pizza.
