

'The Jamaican Experience' event returns to Orlando Feb. 27 as an extraordinary showcase exhibition

'THE JAMAICAN EXPERIENCE' event, now in its 3rd year, is an extraordinary 'specialized showcase' exhibition of Jamaican goods, services, products, arts and crafts, businesses, organizations, travel and tourism, culture and 'Brand Jamaica' promotion

Jan. 9, 2013 - PRLog -- 'THE JAMAICAN EXPERIENCE' event returns to Orlando more sensational than ever and poised for grand success in 2013!

The event is an extraordinary 'specialized showcasing' in Orlando of Jamaican goods, services, products, arts & crafts, businesses, organizations, Jamaica's travel and tourism, culture and 'brand Jamaica' promotion than previously exhibited at this fabulous event, now in its 3rd year.

There are Outstanding Sponsors, Incredible Exhibitors, Distinguished Guests and Fantastic Attendees affiliated with 'The Jamaican Experience' event where the magnificent showing will take place at the newly renovated and beautiful Embassy Suites Hotel located at 225 Shorecrest Drive, Altamonte Springs, Florida, 32701 on Wednesday Feb. 27, 2013 from 5:30pm - 8:30pm where guests can flexibly attend anytime within the given timeframe at the minimal cost of $5.00 per person

Exciting event inclusions are the 'OnePeople - The Celebration' Film Documentary produced by Zachary Harding and Justine Henzell (daughter of Perry Henzell, Filmmaker of 'The Harder They Come') which will be shown at the event. 'OnePeople' explores The Culture, Accomplishments and History of Jamaica and has received rave reviews. It is a collaborative documentary that invited people worldwide to contribute footage to celebrate Jamaica's global reach 50 years after Independence and is most definitely a 'Don't Miss' production of excellence!

Attendees will have the opportunity to meet Zachary Harding, Producer of "OnePeople-The Celebration" film documentary up close and personal at the event as well as, view the 'Pieces of Jamaica' fascinating artwork which will be on display and too, meet David I. Muir, the 'photographer extraordinaire' who captures the essence of Jamaica through the lens of his camera to create this exhibit. In addition, event attendees will meet Maxine Tulloch, President/CEO of Tulloch Media Communications, Inc. and Executive Producer / Host of 'The Maxine Tulloch TV Show' which airs in South Florida, Jamaica and throughout other parts of the Caribbean. Incredibly vibrant and effervescent Nina Hart will also be returning to Orlando by popular request. Guests will meet this special Author of 'Crosses To Bear, Love To Share' and enthralling Speaker personality, who left an indelible impression on those who met her on her first visit to Orlando back in 2011 at 'The Empowered Women' Break Away Moments event. Attendees are also invited to come and be enlightened by terrific and well-liked local personality, Owen James, Author of 'Jamaican By Birth, American By Choice' who will be one of the dynamic Speakers at 'The Jamaican Experience' showcase event. Above all, attendees can look forward to meeting the Jamaica National Building Society (JNBS) Team who will be Speakers/Presenters at the event, sharing specific information about Jamaica

National Building Society.

Other exciting event elements include listening to Reggae music and other cultural sounds emanating throughout the exhibit showcase area, experiencing 'Jamaica' in an enriched, contemporary and stylish hotel atmosphere, enjoying cultural performances and other featured entertainment, sampling a variety of ethnic Jamaican cuisine and Caribbean snacks and delicacies, checking out a variety of amazing exhibits, viewing special magnificent displays, mixing, mingling, meeting, greeting and networking in a wonderful environment that reflects the essence and spirit of Jamaica as well as, looking forward to special raffle drawings, door prizes and unique 'surprise' elements.

“The Jamaican Experience” event is all about Jamaica...Jamaica...Jamaica..however, anyone who has an interest in exhibiting is also welcomed to do so.
