

Golden Triangle Tour with Indian Spiritual Journeys

SYDNEY, Australia - July 1, 2013 - PRLog -- With a civilization of almost being 5000 years old, India is a proud country boasting of exquisitely different cultures and traditions, with a rich historical past and heritage. Welcoming all to further enrich and enlighten themselves.

Amongst the numerous cultures to soak in, exploring the Golden Triangle of India – New Delhi, Jaipur and Agra is one of the best for an international tourist. As it presents you with all the flavors and culture of North India, through these three states and promises to leave you mesmerized with its mystical colors and rich traditions, emerging from the eventful past it boasts of.

New Delhi, the capital of India is the perfect destination to see the rural and the modern architecture. It is a state full of a rich history, ranging from the Mughal Era to the British Raj. Visit Old Delhi, originally known as Shahjahanabad, built by Emperor Shahjahan, relive the Mughal time, through their magnificent architecture reflected in the forts and be charmed by the streets of Chandini Chowk. Compare the Mughal period with the British reign, by seeing their work of art reflected in the buildings designed and constructed by them. See the plan of Delhi, originally made by British architectures, Baker and Lutyen. Visit Delhi Haat, a mystifying place, which surprisingly will help you taste every corner of India, with stalls from every state of the country.

Jaipur or the Pink city, because of its architecture is known as the 'land of palaces and forts'. A blend of Mughal and Rajasthani culture, that one will never forget. Experience the royal treatment; feel like the historical maharajas that presided there. Enjoy the true meaning of Jaipur's culture by visiting Chokidhani- an ethnic village resort, providing you with elephant and camel rides, live traditional dance and music show, and much more. Visit the majestic Amber Fort, on an Elephant, depicting the royal style, visit the other beautiful palaces and experience all the colors that Jaipur has to offer, including its colorful markets.

Agra the former capital of Hindustan is also known for Taj Mahal, the seventh wonder of the world, is an intricate city, reflecting the Mughal tradition and culture to the hilt. Not only do you get to see and know all about Taj Mahal, but also visit the infamous Red Fort or the 'Lal Qila' and the Fatehpur Sikri. Being the historical capital, it undoubtedly stands for one of the best examples of the Mughal Era.

Thus this tour, will bring the best to you when it comes to Indian culture and also provides a comfortable service, planned and personalized especially for our international guests.
