

Joanna Pearl's Debut EP is on the way... Be a part of it!

Hailing from Temecula, California, Joanna Pearl is a driven, passionate and charismatic songwriter with a lot to say.

TEMECULA, Calif. - Feb. 11, 2014 - PRLog -- Her music owes much to country and folk, but not only: This versatile singer-songwriter has developed a really interesting approach to her work, striving to create music with a unique and eclectic approach. Her songs push the sound towards different directions, incorporating elements as diverse as blues, soul, rock and pop music, inspired by iconic artists the likes of Elvis Presley, Aretha Franklin, Celine Dion, Demi Lovato and many more.

Joanna is currently working on her debut EP, which will feature 5 original songs, portraying her explosive musical cocktail. You have the chance to stand behind this project and support Joanna through pledging to her Kickstarter campaign. If you haven't heard about it, Kickstarter is an amazing online platform that allows fans and supporters of an artist or a project to connect like never before. Through her campaign, Joanna gives fans the possibility to become actively involved within the "making of" of her EP, by donating to the production.

Actually, it is not really a donation: the right term is "pledge", because you get something back, depending on how much money are you pledging!
