"The Solo System opens a path to self-knowledge. The destination of this path is self-realisation. The main reason for working with the Solo System is to become more authentic." (The Solo System, p. 23)

The Solo System is the result of one woman's epic journey through life. Veronika Bond, born in 1955 to German parents, has been a spiritual seeker all her life. She received the material for the Solo System in 1998 through inspiration after a deep and transformational personal crisis. It has taken her 17 years of writing, researching, and exploring the farthest reaches of the inner world to bring the book into its current form. Find more information about the author on
