

Virtual Sports League Hosting Inaugural All-Star Game

SEATTLE - Sept. 28, 2015 - PRLog -- Virtual Sports League (VSL), the first-ever professional laser tag league, is hosting its inaugural All-Star Game in the Seattle area, on Tuesday, September 29, 2015 at 8pm.

The VSL season lasts 11 weeks, with all franchise teams playing each week, including the All-Star Game and Playoffs.

Hosted at the Virtual Sports facility in Tukwila, WA, the VSL is an 8-team league with five players each that lasts 11 weeks and involves local professional athletes, including Doug Baldwin and Richard Sherman. Baldwin is the VSL Commissioner, while Sherman is a VSL team owner.

The All-Star Game, the midpoint in the VSL season, will be a celebration of a successful first season by including celebrity players, such as Baldwin, Sherman, Hank Baskett, Kendra Wilkinson and others.

Elysian Brewing Company, the official beer of the VSL, will also be participating in the All-Star game festivities with raffle items and beer specials for VSL fans.

Fans can view the VSL All-Star game in person at Virtual Sports or tune-in on twitch.tv site twitch.tv/GAEMSlive.
