Dual Awards Given to US Translation Company & CEO David Utrilla

US Translation Company and its founder take home two prestigious awards in one week to add to their collection.

SALT LAKE CITY - May 19, 2016 - PRLog -- US Translation Company was recognized last night at Utah's Best of State Award Gala Event as the Best of State winner in the Business Services, Language Services category. The award honors companies that have demonstrated impressive growth, contribution to the quality of life in Utah, and innovation. Previously, US Translation Company had taken home the medallion for four consecutive years (2009-2013).

The 2016 Quixote Award, sponsored by the Utah Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, "honors Hispanic/Latino business owners who have distinguished themselves in business by demonstrating initiative and creativity in addressing major challenges in their businesses, who have shown commitment to their employees, and who have achieved outstanding professional accomplishments." David Utrilla will receive this recognition tomorrow at the UHCC Annual Convention and Expo for his community involvement and for his entrepreneurial achievements.

David Utrilla founded US Translation Company in 1995. Since then, he has worked to build it into a world-class business, accruing awards and accolades from the likes of Inc. Magazine, the Small Business Administration, and Diversity Magazine. As his success has grown, Utrilla has invested into his community, serving in various leadership roles within Utah's Hispanic population, and in the local business community at large. He has contributed to a number of organizations such as Weber State University (his alma mater), Eagle Condor Humanitarian, and The Road Home. In addition to his role as CEO of US Translation Company, he serves as the Honorary Consul of Peru in Utah.
