SOUTHAMPTON, U.K. - July 29, 2016 - PRLog -- The Green Dog an online boutique in Fordingbridge, Hampshire is delighted to have recently become a stockist for two new premium dog brands bringing even more choice of fashion and quality products to our four-legged customers.

For the small fashion conscious dog about Town, the Green Dog now stocks Urban Pup, a brand which is dedicated to providing stylish couture and high fashion clothing for dogs whose owners want them to be as on trend as they are. The range includes coats, leads & collar sets, dresses and jumpers including the ' Legally Blonde' Bruiser's Jumper, as worn by Bruiser the Chihuahau in Legally Blonde The Musical, starring in London's West End.

There is also a high quality selection of dog carriers made with designer fabrics and trims that combine to create a chic carrier to show off your dog and complement your outfit, whilst being designed to make your dog's journey as safe and comfortable as possible.

To make bath time a much more enjoyable experience for your four legged friend they have a premium range of organic shampoos from the British company, K9 Organics. Based in Cheshire, the company was established when the mother and daughter team became increasingly uneasy with the chemicals in the shampoos that they were using on their family pet.

The range is 100% Natural and 98% certified Organic, the companies policy is Beautifully Natural - Naturally Beautiful and supporting this philosophy they keep their products as close to nature as possible, featuring luxury shampoos such as Mint & Eucalyptus, Lavender, Carrot Seed and Sensitive, which is a very gentle shampoo especially formulated for dogs with allergies or sensitive skin.
