

Camden Delta Welcomes Dee Ann Turner to the Spring Client Forum

Dee Ann Turner, Vice President of Enterprise Social Responsibility for Chick-fil-A, Inc., speaks on the importance of talent management and culture within the workplace

ATLANTA - May 3, 2017 - PRLog -- Camden Delta Consulting, LLC a strategic human capital consulting firm will host the firm's Spring Client Forum in Atlanta. The exclusive forum will feature guest speaker and author, Dee Ann Turner Vice President of Enterprise Social Responsibility for Chick-fil-A, Inc. The meeting will focus on demonstrating how businesses can create a lasting market through two key factors: talent management and culture.

With over 30 years of experience at Chick-fil-A, Inc., Dee Ann Turner has helped grow the food chain's unique and esteemed culture by leading the recruitment, selection, and retention process of both corporate staff members and Chick-fil-A Operators.

During the forum, Turner will share stories and real life examples from her top selling book, It's My Pleasure: The Impact of Extraordinary Talent and a Compelling Culture. Turner's book emphasizes the need for businesses to build and sustain extraordinary talent and culture.

"We are looking forward to the great stories and lessons that Dee Ann will share with our clients. She and Chick-fil-A are tremendous examples of how to grow with integrity and staying true to your values." stated Camden Delta's Managing Partner Glen Kallas.
