

Attorney Lynne Torgerson Second Amendment Lawyer wins probation discharge and gun rights restoration

MINNEAPOLIS - Aug. 14, 2017 - PRLog -- Attorney Lynne Torgerson, Second Amendment Lawyer, Criminal Defense Lawyer, won an early discharge from probation, and, concurrently therewith, an order restoring her client's gun rights, out of Hennepin County District Court. Her client had performed very well on probation. The original plea agreement provided that if he did well on probation, that he could obtain an early discharge from probation, and, restoration of his gun rights. It was an intensely fought battle, with Ms. Torgerson's client ultimately prevailing.

Lynne Torgerson, Esq., is a lawyer of excellence and experience of over 27 years. She is a graduate of the University of Minnesota, obtaining degrees in Political Science and Psychology. Ms. Torgerson also graduated from William Mitchell College of Law, with Honors. While at William Mitchell College of Law, Ms. Torgerson was a Member of Law Review, a participant of The Honorable Rosalie Wahl Moot Court competition, an Intern with The Honorable Henry W. McCarr, and a recipient of The Honorable Charles Amdahl Scholarship. After law school, Ms. Torgerson was a Law Clerk for The Honorable Magistrate Judge Geffen, United States District Court, Los Angeles, California. Ms. Torgerson has had her own successful law practice, based out of Minneapolis, Minnesota, since 1995. In 2010, Ms. Torgerson was awarded Attorney of the Year. This followed winning a case at the United States Supreme Court, based on Sixth Amendment right of confrontation grounds, a feat accomplished by a very select few lawyers. Her case has also been taught in law schools as part of their curriculum. Ms. Torgerson has also been awarded Attorney for the New Millenium. For assistance, please call (612) 339-5073.
