

Matthew Brickman Explains How To Survive or Prevent Epic 20 Hour Divorce Mediations

Matthew Brickman explains the steps divorcing couples can take to survive or even prevent excessively long divorce mediation sessions.

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. - Jan. 31, 2018 - PRLog -- Matthew Brickman is a South Florida family and divorce mediator and has successfully mediated hundreds of divorces while maintaining a historically strong success rate.

On a recent appearance on "The Family Man" radio show, he explained how to survive and even prevent mental and emotional fatigue that can occur when divorce mediation sessions drag out over extended periods of time.

Mr. Brickman explained the key is preparation and efficiency, "My job is to empower but it's difficult to empower when the party is tired out and exhausted so I try not to go past the eight hour mark. By using the mediation to get them through the judicial system it's to set them up for success."
