

Experiences of Teaching English Abroad in China Are Being Described as Transformational

Teachers from all over the world and especially many from the UK and United States have been changing their lives and the lives of many children in China who want to learn English from native speakers.

LONDON - July 10, 2018 - PRLog -- English teachers from everywhere across globe from Africa to the United States and right here in England have been taking the leap to live abroad and work in a field doing something they love while helping young people.

Teachers are describing the change in life as amazing, culturally enriching, and completely transformational.

The process to teach abroad has never been simpler. Although some schools require a TEFL certification, CELTA, and relevant teaching experience; other positions don't require any previous teaching experience and qualifications. The top TEFL job services even provide paid training for all positions.

One longstanding service, China Link ESL helps teachers organize all the necessary paperwork needed to obtain a legal work (Z) visa, travel and housing accommodations.

China Link ESL is a 100% free for their job seekers. More information about the process can be found on their website FAQ.

The company has fifty (50) public reviews averaging five (5) stars. One teacher left a recent review saying, "Thanks guys! You made my dream come true!! I have been teaching in Zhenjiang now for 4 months and it is the best decision I have ever made. The people are all so lovely here and the students make this job an absolute dream. All the students take on an English name for life and last week I had a parent ask if she can name her son after me! So adorable!"

China Link ESL has made a major push in 2018 with a new website and expansion of it's social media presence to other popular platforms such as Instagram. Their service is always 100% free for job seekers.
