

Check 6 Arms, LLC Expands With Addition Of New Partner

Military and law enforcement veteran joins Check 6 Arms, LLC as partner

ARVADA, Colo. - July 11, 2018 - PRLog -- CHECK 6 ARMS, LLC, online firearms retailer, has announced today that on May 26th, 2018, it entered into a unanimous agreement to add a new business partner into the fold; military and law enforcement veteran, Benjamin (Ben) Muir.

Ben Muir brings with him over 10 years of law enforcement experience as an Undercover Narcotics Investigator with the Eastern Colorado Drug Taskforce and the DEA as part of the Tactical Meth Lab Team. In addition, he also served as a Denver Paramedic EMT, proudly served 2 years in the United States Navy as an Air Crew Rescue Swimmer, and was a FBI Tactical Instructor in Sniper Tactical Training. The addition of Ben to the Check 6 Arms team will provide solid knowledge and experience in firearms and firearms instruction to improve and expand their customer base as well as continuing to provide excellent customer service.

Check 6 Arms, LLC was formed in 2014 by William Ceron and Kelly Watts from their mutual love of firearms and seeing the need for a low cost alternative to big box store pricing. The online only presence was a decision made to enable prices to stay low and avoid costly overhead normally associated with a traditional brick-and-mortar storefront.

Check 6 Arms, LLC is an online firearms retail company with the goal to provide the best defensive equipment available to those who take personal defense seriously. Woman and Veteran co-owned. Visit our website at <http://www.check6arms.com>
