MWSA's annual Awards Season submission window runs from January 15th to June 15th each year.

During that time, MWSA accepts books for review and award consideration. After all books have been read and evaluated by its volunteer reviewers, those with the highest scores are first recognized as "MWSA Awards Finalists." MWSA announced this year's finalists on September 16th. On the evening of November 10th, during its gala awards banquet, they recognized individual authors and their works with specific medals as indicated above.

Congratulations to our 2018 Medal Winners!
