

3rd Edition of The Latin Podcast Awards Present The 2nd Round of Nominees

The Latin Podcast Awards and podcasters from the USA and around the have geared up for the competition. Nominations for registration will remain open through July 2019, and sponsorship opportunities are available.

MONTGOMERY, Ala. - April 8, 2019 - PRLog -- Felix A. Montelara, founder of Audio Dice Network, presents the Latin Podcast Awards (LPA) competition 2019. The LPA is the only world-wide LatinX digital audio competition awards honoring Spanish and English language podcasts from the United States and around de world. As part of the process, content producers and podcast fans are able to nominate LatinX podcasts at LatinPodcastAwards.com/r19.

Podcasting is growing in popularity among Spanish speakers from the United States and around the world. The LPA is proud to welcome LPA 2019 nominees from the United States, Mexico, Spain and other countries making this an international event. Sponship is provided by Bitextuales.com and we thank them for their support. If you or your organization wants to be part of something special with the LatinX community feel free to contact us.

The 2019 LPA nominees are vying for: category awards, country awards, an international award, a Multinational award, an English (only), and the coveted "Latin Podcast Award of the Year 2019." A panel of international judges, who are themselves podcast content producers, have been assembled to select winners . The judges are tasked with selecting the finalists and eventual winner of the coveted Latin Podcast Award of the Year 2019.

The winners of their respective categories and countries, along with the international award, English (only) award, and the Latin Podcast Award of the Year award will receive a "Bullet Microphone Statue" (Trophy) to display to the world..
