MAINEVILLE, Ohio - Aug. 16, 2019 - PRLog -- Changed Through Faith, written by local author resident Brian Goslee, has been nominated for a 2019 Author Academy Award, an honor bestowed for literary merit and publishing excellence in the writing and publishing industry.

Goslee's book, up for an award in the Religion category, teaches readers how to activate their faith and follow four steps to a changed life of greater peace, purpose, and fulfillment.

"Hundreds of books from authors throughout the world are up for an Author Academy Award," said Kary Oberbrunner, founder of Author Academy Elite and the Author Academy Awards. "Our goal is to help further connect this global community of authors, maintain excellence and integrity of the book publishing industry, and raise awareness that the stories being told and the authors who write them are worth our attention."

Authors of all kinds—indie (self-published), traditional, or collaborative published—are being considered for the award in one of sixteen categories. Entries are being reviewed and evaluated on popular vote, social contribution, and overall presentation (cover, content, flow, and originality) by the Academy's voting membership comprised of best-selling authors, literary agents and industry leaders.

If interested in supporting Goslee and participating in the popular vote portion of the award evaluation, go to <http://authoracademyawards.com/> and scroll to the "VOTE NOW" section. Once there, click through to the Religion category, then find and click on Changed Through Faith.

The top ten finalists in each category will be invited to present their book synopsis at an Author Academy Awards Red Carpet Session on Friday, Oct. 25, 2019, in Columbus, Ohio.
