

Mid-West Moving & Storage Proud To Be A Partner Of Chicago Wolves Next 3 Seasons

ELK GROVE VILLAGE, Ill. - Oct. 28, 2019 - PRLog -- Mid-West Moving & Storage (MWM) will begin a 3-year partnership with the Chicago Wolves. MWM will be the preferred mover for team, management and relocating the art installation of 10 larger-than-life Wolves goalie masks. Each mask features a different design worn by former Wolves players, representing the team's 25+ year history. The masks are currently housed in the MWM 60,000 sq. ft. warehouse storage facility until relocation.

New mask locations presented by Mid-West Moving & Storage with a commemorative plaque. MWM's military moving and storage division will be a supporting sponsor for the Chicago Wolves military nights during Military Appreciation Weekend November 9th & 10th. Their sister company, Chicago Office Movers, a Union Teamsters 705 professional moving company, will be the presenting sponsor for the Chicago Wolves "Chicago Union Night" game.

Mid-West Moving & Storage will be represented at the Chicago Wolves training facility in Hoffman Estates with onsite signage.

"We look forward to partnering with such a top-notch organization and building our brand alongside the 2019 Western Conference Champions. We are excited to inform the public of our mission to provide our clients the best moving experience through our innovative, efficient, professional moving methods and staff," Mid-West Moving & Storage President, and CEO Luis Toledo said. "We can't wait for a great season of Hockey and Moving."

"We're happy to partner with an organization like Mid-West Moving & Storage that aligns with our own needs and community initiatives, especially when it comes to supporting those who have served our country," said Jon Sata, Wolves Senior Vice President, Partnerships and Business Development. "We look forward to a mutually beneficial strategic partnership over the next three seasons."
